

RESOLUTION
OF
THE LEGISLATURE OF TEXAS,

IN FAVOR OF

The reimbursement of expenses incurred by volunteers of that State in going to their places of rendezvous.

APRIL 10, 1848.

Ordered to lie on the table, and be printed.

JOINT RESOLUTION for the relief of the Texas volunteers called into the service of the country, in the year 1846.

Whereas the volunteers of Texas who repaired to the service of the country, under the call of his excellency the governor of the State, in the spring of 1846, in consequence of their unprepared condition for such an expedition, and the great distance they had to travel to reach the point of rendezvous, incurred great expense—many of them to such an extent that they are yet suffering in consequence, and may, unless relieved by government, never recover therefrom: Therefore,

Section 1. Be it resolved by the legislature of the State of Texas, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives requested, to procure the passage of a law by the Congress of the United States reimbursing the troops of Texas who were called into the service of the country by his excellency the governor of the State, under the requisitions of General Taylor and Colonel Harney, in the spring of the year 1846, the expenses incurred by them in travelling to the place or places of rendezvous.

JAMES W. HENDERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN A. GREER,
President of the Senate.

Approved March 10, 1848.

GEO. T. WOOD.

I hereby certify that the above is a correct copy of the original joint resolution on file in the State Department.

In testimony whereof, the seal of the State
[L. S.] is hereunto affixed.

W. D. MILLER,
Secretary of State.

THE LEGISLATURE OF TEXAS

RESOLUTION

April 10, 1848

Ordered to lie on the table, and be printed

The reimbursement of expenses incurred by members of the Legislature going to their places of residence

JOINT RESOLUTION for the relief of the Texas volunteers called into the service of the country in the year 1846

Whereas the volunteers of Texas who repaired to the service of the country under the call of his excellency the governor of the State in the spring of 1846, in consequence of their unpaid condition for such an expedition, and the great distance they had to travel to reach the point of rendezvous, incurred great expense—many of them to such an extent that they are yet suffering in consequence, and may, unless relieved by government, never recover therefrom: Therefore

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives be requested, to procure the passage of a law by the Congress of the United States reimbursing the troops of Texas who were called into the service of the country by his excellency the governor of the State, under the requisitions of General Taylor and Colonel Harvey, in the spring of the year 1846, the expenses incurred by them in travelling to the place of places of rendezvous.

JAMES W. HENDERSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN A. CREER,
President of the Senate.

Approved March 10, 1848

GEO. T. WOOD

I hereby certify that the above is a correct copy of the original joint resolution on file in the State Department.

In testimony whereof, the seal of the State

W. D. MILLER,
Secretary of State.
